

HLA 10K

The HLA 10K combines unmatched simplicity and safety in a field repairable platform that offers more remotely controlled OEM solutions than any quick connection in the oilfield. With the HLA 10K's full suite of solutions, you can keep your crews out of the hot-zone for more operations, enabling for more simultaneous operations.

Applications

- 10KSI operations

Benefits

- Remotely rig up, operate lift night caps, and launch frac balls.
- 30%-40% approximate times savings over traditional man basket operations.
- Increases uptime by allowing for more simultaneous operations of frac and wireline crews.
- Can be repaired in as little as 15 minutes in the field.

Features

- 10KSI Pressure Rating
- Automated Lift Night Cap
- Automated Frac Ball Launcher
- Sensors with indicator lights to ensure safe operation of equipment
- Highly visible entry guide

Options

- 10 KSI pressure ratings
- Remotely Operated Lift Night Cap
- Remotely Operated Frac Ball Launcher
- Single and Multi-Unit Control Panels
- Standard and Self Powered Control Panels
- Multi-Unit Transport Skids

